until Monday morning,

Last ~~Sunday~~ Saturday night we wake up at 11:30 and heard someone pounding on the ^{men's} car door and a glass fall (he pounded so hard that he broke the glass in the door) and ~~he~~ ^{they} wanted to get someone, and by the time we got up and answered him he was gone. We looked out of the window and a car had tipped over up here at the corner. The reason why he didn't stay ^{long} was that he saw some cars coming up the road, and he flagged the cars and we saw them open a door (the car was on its side) and pull a man up out of the car. He was dazed or hurt or some-thing because they had to pull him and lead him along. One of the cars turned around and took him down town. We don't know who it was as there was no account of it in the paper.

Mom is going down to Senesquai tonight and she has to take a ten-cent gift so she took a can of crushed pineapple for her gift. Aunt Nettie and Jennie went to the Circle last night and Aunt Jennie got a pretty handkerchief and Aunt Nettie got a green vase.
